Dear Hamilton Families,

SPORTS DAY IS ON tomorrow, June 10th! It looks like we will get a window of opportunity between weather systems, and we will be able to run most of our events outdoors. We are looking forward to a great day!

The morning will begin with our BIKE PARADE. Students can bring their decorated bikes, scooters, wagons, skateboards, anything with wheels, to the tennis courts any time after 8:00am. We are looking for a couple of parent volunteers to help with monitoring the bikes. If you can help, please contact the school.

Students should dress for the weather: layered clothing and good shoes for being active on damp grass. Parents are welcome to attend the outdoor activities. Some of the events will be indoors and will only be accessible to students and staff.

Students will be dismissed at 1:30 tomorrow. Please arrange for pick up and child care.

8:00 – 8:45 Bike Parade bikes, scooter, wagons etc. dropped off at the tennis courts

9:00 – 9:20	Bike Parade (weather permitting)
9:30 – 10:30	First 5 Stations
10:30 – 10:45	RECESS – Snack & Dance Break
10:45 – 11:45	Second 5 Stations
12:00 – 12:30	LUNCH
12:45 – 1:30	Tug-of-War (in the gym if necessary) Full class race

Our annual PAC (Parent Advisory Council) General Meeting will be held virtually on Thursday, June 16th at 6:30pm. All parents/guardians are welcome to attend. This includes parents of students starting kindergarten in September. This is a great way to support our school and connect with other parents.

Our Grade 7 Farewell Assembly will be held on Friday June 24th. Due to the fact we are holding this year's ceremony in the gym and we are restricted to 50% capacity, there will be limited seating capacity, and only family of grade 7 students will be able to attend. Thank you for your understanding.

Mr. McCallum and Mrs. Livingston
